

A New Vision of Assisted Living for Seniors

*Awarded the 2011
National 3M Award for Quality in Healthcare*

Meeting a need in Ontario's Health System

A Resource Manual for Developing an Effective Assisted Living for High Risk Seniors Program in Your Community

The Official Seal of an Approved SDL Provider in the Mississauga Halton Local Health Integration Network (LHIN)

Our sincere thank you to the following Supports for Daily Living (SDL) Service Providers whose dedication and commitment to health system improvement and addressing the needs of high risk seniors has been pivotal to the impressive success of the Supports for Daily Living (SDL) service within the Mississauga Halton LHIN

M.I.C.B.A. Forum Italia Community Services

---

Nucleus Independent Living

---

Oakville Senior Citizens Residence

---

Ontario March of Dimes (Etobicoke)

---

Peel Senior Link

---

Region of Halton

---

Victorian Order of Nurses – Peel

---

Yee Hong Centre for Geriatric Care

This program and these Supports
for Daily Living Providers in conjunction with the Mississauga Halton LHIN are recipients of the 2011 National 3M Award for Quality in Healthcare

Acknowledgment and many thanks are given to the following individuals and organizations for their knowledge and tireless work in compiling this Resource Manual:

Author:

- Judy Bowyer, Executive Lead, Health System Performance Management, MH LHIN

Contributors:

- Raymond Applebaum, CEO, Peel Senior Link
- Lisa Gammage, Director, Nucleus Independent Living
- Kristina Hall, Executive Director, Nucleus Independent Living
- Angela Katunas, CEO, Oakville Senior Citizens Residence

A special thanks to Lynn Woods, Lynn Woods Communications who assisted our group in the production of this Resource Manual